

Biographical information

Lydia Oshavkova studied at the Academy of Music in Sofia. Her masters were Jean-Pierre Rampalle and Alain Marion in Paris and Nice, France.

Oshavkova has also attended seminars with J. Galloway in London. She works as a flute professor at the Academy of Music in Sofia. Lydia Oshavkova was first flute of Sofia Festival Orchestra, Bulgaria. As a distinguished soloist, she took part in numerous concerts of the Sofia Orchestra in Europe, Japan and the United States.

Prof. Lydia Oshavkova has also performed as a soloist in a number of international festivals in Bulgaria, France, Italy and Japan. She conducts master courses in Bulgaria, Greece, Italy, France, Switzerland, Holland and Korea.

She has recorded CDs released by the companies "GEGA New" / Bulgaria, "Divertimento" / Vienna, "Nimbus records" / Great Britain and "Concord" / USA.